

LAW ADS WEALTHY "DOPE," SAYS DOCTOR

Thousands of Indigent Must Go On Suffering, Declares Texas Medical Official.

DALLAS, March 26.—"The wealthy victim can obtain relief by paying for treatment, but the thousands of the indigent must go on suffering and dying unless relieved," said Dr. J. Q. Spradlin, acting upon State and local authorities to act in the emergency created by the enforcement of the Harrison Federal "dope" law.

"Calling the law one of the greatest blessings the country has ever known," Spradlin at the same time said a "stake" was made in not providing "relief" and relief for the unfortunate "denied out of from their 'dope'."

In a few weeks' time most of them will be cured, he said.

"That thousands are addicted to the drug habit and do not know it, was the startling statement by Dr. Spradlin.

"They have been in a few months' time, year in and year out," he said, "some prescription which has been found to afford relief from some bodily suffering, and the physicians who issued it is not aware they are still using the prescription. Druggists fill these prescriptions, not telling that it is incumbent upon them to ask any questions."

Flowers of World Seen In Life-Like Movies

The flowers of the world, with detailed descriptions of their growth and culture and remarkable colored photographs of all sorts of blossoms, constituted the final lecture of the Dwight Elmendorf course at the National Theatre last evening.

During the past six weeks Elmendorf has conducted his big Washington following on a series of lectures around the world, but none was more interesting than that last night which took them to the lands where wonderful flowers bloom.

Elmendorf showed a wide knowledge of pomology and horticulture. He kept his audience laughing in a few moments what nature requires months to do. Not only were flowers shown bursting into bloom, but the whole life of a plant from the seed to the dying away of the blossom, was shown.

The lecture concluded with a number of views of American flowers, as pictures of those growing in the beautiful country estate of the lecturer.

Calve Will Resume Her Keith Engagement Today

After two days of rest and medical attention, Mme. Emma Calve announced last night that she would resume her engagement at the H. F. Keith Theater with the matinee today, as pictures of her at all of the remaining performances during the week. Her physician has given her permission to sing, however, and she announces that come what may she will fill out every remaining performance.

Nora Bayes, who was brought on from New York yesterday morning to take Mme. Calve's place in the Keith bill, will remain also, thus giving an extra feature that was not scheduled in the program for the week.

Manager Robbins has requested that patrons holding coupons for seats for the Wednesday matinee which are to be accepted as admission for standing room at other performances, will present these coupons for admission at matinee performances only. Those holding coupons of similar kind for the Wednesday night performance are requested to present them at night performances only. The management has taken this action in order to better accommodate those who paid to hear Mme. Calve and were unable to do so by reason of her illness.

Noria Saves Paintings And Silver From Fire

ST. LOUIS, March 26.—Jane Noria (Countess), a contented grand opera star, fought her way through fire and smoke in a fire at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fred Smith, and rescued oil paintings, jewelry, silverware, and what not in time.

Mme. Noria was visiting another sister, Mrs. Louise Barklage, across the street, when she saw smoke coming from the third floor of the Smith residence. When firemen arrived and broiled down the door Mme. Noria rushed into the house and carried out the valuable paintings while the firemen fought the flames. They attempted to stop her from making a second trip, but she broke from them.

She literally tore the paintings from the walls and succeeded in saving six of them, which were valued at about $10,000. She also saved all the Smith silverware, valued at about $5,000.

An English bulldog, Pat, which was locked in the basement of the house, was carried out by Mme. Noria at the last moment.

FIRE IN THEATER; PEOPLE MARCH OUT

Audience Cool As Daniel Frohman Asks That House Be Empty, and No One Is Hurt.

NEW YORK, March 26.—A large matinee audience in the Lyceum Theatre was waiting for the curtain to go up on the first act of "Outcast," in which Elsie Ferguson is starring, when a wisp of smoke curled into the balcony. Presently those seated downstairs could smell burning wood. Timid persons here and there began to walk toward the doors, and soon were crowded inside of the entrance, uncertain whether to leave or not.

Smoke was hanging rather heavily in the house when Daniel Frohman appeared at the end of an aisle, just in front of the stage, and L. C. Wyndham stage manager, came out in a box. They told the audience there was an insignificant fire in one end of the building next door and asked the people to step out while the management ascertained its extent.

All arose and walked quietly to the exits, marshaled by a corps of ushers. The damage, which was confined to the lockers and furniture of the passageway and the ushers' clothing, stored there, was estimated at $600.

METHODISTS OF N. Y. WANT BILLY SUNDAY

State Conference, in Resolution, Declares He "Exalted True Manhood in Philadelphia."

NEW YORK, March 26.—A resolution urging "Billy" Sunday to come to New York at the first opportunity to conduct a revival campaign was passed by the New York Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in session in the Park Avenue Church. The opening meeting was marked by a high tribute paid to the Wilson Administration by Bishop Earl Cranston.

"There never was a time when the moral atmosphere of Washington was so good as at present," said Bishop Cranston. "The members of the Government and those closely connected with it are men of exceedingly high moral character, and an ardent advocate of temperance, whatever may be said of his activities, is, at least, a brave man and has the courage of his convictions."

In urging Sunday to come to New York the conference extended to him its congratulations for his work in Philadelphia in "exalting true manhood and creating an atmosphere for righteousness."

William H. Anderson, State superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, pointed out that nation-wide prohibition ten years is expected and many persons who have watched the fight for temperance.

Joseph Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, has been invited to speak this afternoon at a meeting of the social service committee of the conference. Katherine B. Davis, commissioner of correction, is also expected to address the meeting.

Girls! Girls! Save your hair! Make it grow luxuriant and beautiful.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life, has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy, or too oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and you will find it the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and if it is no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Danderine. Danderine. If eventually scurf robs the hair of its luster, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fall out, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.
